HOW WE WORK

1. GET IN TOUCH

Start the process by emailing us or submitting a request through our website to book a Zoom or in-studio consultation. We can't wait to hear all about your wedding plans, chat through our design options, and answer any questions you might have.

All available consultation dates can be viewed and booked directly through our online booking diary.

2. QUOTATION & BOOKING

After our consultation we then provide you with your personalised wedding quotation via email.

If you're happy to proceed, we'll send over your contract and a link to pay the £200.00 non-refundable design fee. This fee secures your booking in our design and production schedule and covers the time required to create your bespoke design proposal.

3. DESIGN PROCESS

Once we have all the necessary details from you, we'll begin work on your digital Design Proposal.

You'll receive a proof to review - it's your responsibility to check all details carefully, including spelling, grammar, dates, times, and names.

We include two complimentary rounds of amendments. Additional changes are charged at £50.00 per amendment.

As each design is completely bespoke, no refunds will be given once a proof has been created, regardless of whether it has been approved for print.

4. ASSEMBLY

Once you've signed off your design, full payment for that part of your order is required before we proceed to print. No further changes can be made after payment.

Your order is sent to print within 24 hours of payment and typically arrives within 7-10 working days.

Once received, we carry out a thorough quality check and begin assembly in our home studio. Assembly can take 3-4 weeks, depending on the size and complexity of your order.

5. DELIVERY

Postal delivery is our standard method for all orders and ensures a smooth, secure, and timely handover.

Due to the nature of our home studio setup, studio collections are not part of our standard service and are only considered in exceptional circumstances. If you believe a collection is absolutely necessary, this must be discussed at the consultation stage — we cannot guarantee availability.

CONSULTATIONS

Let's Chat Wedding Stationery!

Start the process by emailing us or submitting a request through our website to book a Zoom or Studio consultation. We can't wait to hear all about your plans, chat through our design options, and answer any questions you may have.

A consultation is a key part of the design journey - it helps us make sure we're the right fit for each other, while beginning to bring your ideas to life.

Because every couple's stationery is completely unique, we don't provide quotations without a consultation.

This allows us to fully understand your style, your stationery needs, and any special details - so we can give you accurate pricing based on your preferences.

Why Book a Consultation?

Because your stationery deserves just as much love and thought as the rest of your day. This is where your ideas start becoming something beautiful - and we're here to help.

What We'll Cover:

- Your wedding date, venue & overall vibe
- Your ideas or inspiration (if you have any — no pressure!)
- Our product range and design process
- Timelines, pricing & next steps
- Any questions you might have

We keep consultations relaxed and informative, a lovely way to get to know each other and start dreaming up something beautiful together.

Zoom Consultations

Perfect if you're short on time or based further away.

We'll meet face-to-face online, talk through your ideas, and show you a few examples on screen to help shape your vision.

It's the exact same process we follow in the studio - just from the comfort of your own home (comfy clothes and pets welcome!).

Almost all of our couples choose Zoom, and it gives us everything we need to begin designing your perfect suite

Studio Consultations

Held at our home studio in Coatbridge on selected dates each month. You'll be able to see all our samples in person, feel the card stocks, explore embellishment options, and really get a sense of the quality and detail that goes into each suite. Whether you're arriving full of inspiration or just figuring things out, we'll guide you through everything - with a glass of Prosecco or a coffee in hand.

Our studio is a warm and welcoming space, best suited to smaller groups. You're very welcome to bring someone along, whether that's your mum, partner, or best friend - but we kindly ask that you limit your group to no more than 2-3 guests.

Just let us know who will be joining you when booking, so we can make sure everything is set up comfortably for your visit.

Please note: Studio consultations are limited and offered by appointment only. Availability depends on our current workload and how busy the studio is with live orders.

After all... you're designing your wedding – so why wouldn't you design your stationery too?

FAQS

QUESTION

ANSWER

Do you offer venue illustrations?

Yes - venue illustrations are one of my signature design features and a beautiful way to personalise your stationery. Each illustration is created digitally and is exclusive to A Little Bit of Loveliness. They are not sold separately. We can adapt your illustration to reflect the season or time of day, enhancing your colour palette or overall wedding aesthetic.

What if I only need signage or on-the-day items?

Absolutely — you don't need to order Save the Dates or invitations to work with me. A bespoke on-the-day stationery order still requires the £200 design fee. If you're looking for signage only, just ask to see our separate signage brochure.

How long does assembly and delivery take?

Once your design is approved and payment is received, your order goes to print within 24 hours. Printing takes around 7–10 working days, followed by 3–4 weeks for hand-assembly depending on the size and complexity of your order.

Do you offer rush orders?

Rush orders may be possible depending on availability. Please mention any deadlines during your consultation - I'll always do my best to help, though it may not always be possible due to external print schedules.

Is there a minimum order?

There's no set minimum, but smaller print runs incur setup costs. Orders of fewer than 40 Save the Dates or invitations will have a £100 print supplement per section. If both are under 40, the supplement applies to each.

Can you address the envelopes for us?

Yes — printed envelope addressing is available for Save the Dates, invitations, and Thank You cards.
A6 addressing: £85 flat fee
A5 addressing: £95 flat fee

Do you offer foiling, letterpress or other print finishes?

All of my designs are digitally printed using beautiful, high-quality papers. I specialise in the art of digital illustration and thoughtful design, so foiling and letterpress are not currently part of my standard service.

Do you ship outside the UK?

Yes — I primarily ship within the UK, but I can also post to the US and select international addresses. Please get in touch to discuss shipping options for your location.

Can I collect my order from your studio?

Due to our home studio setup, collections are only offered in exceptional cases. If you think collection is necessary, please discuss this during your consultation.

Do you offer digital versions of invitations or signs?

No — I don't offer digital-only stationery or signage. Every design is made to be printed, assembled, and delivered as part of a tactile, high-quality experience.

Being upfront about our prices has always been one of our main priorities.

We want you to be able to work out the cost of your stationery without worrying about hidden charges. To help with this, we've created a simple, straightforward price list so you can easily calculate costs and see right away if we're within your budget.

Our price list includes all of our available products.

ALL ORDERS HAVE AN ADDITIONAL £200.00 DESIGN FEE

The Design & Booking Fee is a non-refundable fee that secures your booking and design time. It's not a deposit and doesn't come off your stationery total.

This fee covers your consultation, quotation and admin time, the creative work involved in developing your bespoke designs, and reserving space in our schedule for design and production.

All prices exclude postage and packaging.

MINIMUM ORDERS

Please note there is a minimum order of 40 pieces for all Save the Dates, Invitations, On-the-Day stationery items, and Thank You cards.

This minimum applies to your combined total (for example, day and evening invitations together), and ensures each design can be produced to the highest standard while keeping print costs fair and consistent.

If you require fewer than 40 pieces, please get in touch so we can provide a bespoke quote depending on your needs.
